'PERFORMANCE EXCELLENCE'

GETTING A DEGREE

a very popular modern concept

Let me start off by telling you that 'Credit Card Debt' is enormous!

The second statement that is akin to the first is that 'College or Higher Education Debt' dwarfs credit card debt. The reason why this higher education exists is because the federal government made deals with colleges and universities to finance their activities ... to guarantee their tutelage. Keep raising the fee and keep getting paid. What a boat anchor burden to our future civil leaders!

Just want to inject a fresh point please?

If you get a BA or BSc. you will have huge debts that take years of payments to pay off or not.

If you gained a 'Street Smarts', school of hard knocks ability to play top quality golf, you shall have business opportunities that are as valuable as any 'BA or BSc' ... with little or no long term, chocking debt burden. A young corporate adult who can get around the patch at Par will have an office next to corporate directors and board members ... directly up that ladder.

The skill to shoot Par on an average golf course, is just like a degree! Again, it will get you direct access to the high rollers and director level of any 'Fortune 500 Company ...or the top end of any corporate body! You will be on the 'Short List' and 'Quick Trip' to corporate longevity!

Work on your higher education ... the one that needs lower numbers!

Now you know the rest of the story!
