SAFETY IN THE BUNKER

Would one ever feel 'Really Safe In A Bunker'? You scream at me, "Heck I Hate Bunkers!" I hear you!

There are regular times when the pros deliberately strike a shot into the bunker! No, I'm not kidding!

Let us look at this logically. The 'Bunker Shot' is a relatively easy and safe 'Procedure'.

Whenever you have worse problems or more risk around the green than that 'Bunker', it may be wise and 'Good Risk Management To Head For The Beach'. It is often seen at the 'Majors' for example, that opposite or diagonally from the front left 'Green-side Bunker' there is a grassy knoll or swale that is 'Death Just Warming Up'! I could name many but you know them already!

Work diligently on executing your 'Bunker Shots' softly 'Dead Stick'.

Now you make the safest choice!

Enjoy!
