SPECIALTY SHOT DRILLS

SPECIALTY SHOTS IN GENERAL

Any shot that falls out of the 'Ordinary Set-Up & Execution' might be classified as a 'Specialty Shot'. So, if it is not a vanilla 'Full Swing' (with a regular club out of your bag) or very ordinary 'Less Than Full Swing' ('LTFS'), it likely qualifies as a 'Specialty Shot'.

The 'Pre Shot Routine' should be the virtually the same, but considering the 'Special Nature Of The Procedure', is a new part of the sequence.

When addressing a challenge, make sure that your 'SET-UP' is methodical and thorough.

'Positive Visualization' is not an option! Create a solid mental picture, then paint it on 'Mother Nature's Big Canvass'.

'Unusual Lies', 'Bunker Procedures' ('Sand or Grass'), little 'Knock Downs', some 'Bump & Runs' and any shot that involves debris or particulate qualify as 'Specialty Shots'.

If your 'Gut Is Grumbling', you MUST set about your work with 'Method' so you can 'WORK SMART' and score low!

Your 'PSR' is your safety net or life belt in this 'Destination-less Voyage'.

Never leave home without it!
